

Assignment 09

Please watch Lesson 9 before attempting this assignment.

I. Make sentences in 14 types, as illustrated in lesson 9, using following words.

1. behalf	2. deluge	3. demand	4. genus	5. hero	6. menace	7. prefer
8. rebate	9. relent	10. revoke	11. rewind	12. shepherd	13. thesis	14. veto

II. Correct the mistakes, if any, and rewrite the sentences given below.

1. They regarded him as best doctor in town.
2. The ministers are not interested in if the basic needs of the populace are met, they just want to have a good time.
3. She has sang this song several times.

4. The moderator had had enough of the bickering by the end of the discussion.
5. In none of the books did the author spare his heroes from a tragic end.
6. Of the two facts, people are less aware of the former fact than the latter fact.
7. It is an exaggeration to say that there isn't a honest man in the business.
8. The critic scathingly commented that an eleven year old can write more coherently than the author.
9. Swami and Friends portray the innocence of childhood through the witty lens of R. K. Narayan.
10. Politicians must address their voters concerns.
11. The writer does communicate something quite revealing, though.
12. It is important to realize that the totalitarian state's control over thoughts are not to be taken lightly.
13. I refuse to remaining a prisoner of the lies that we like to tell ourselves.