

Hyphenated Words

absent-minded air-condition by-law check-in close-up city-state far-flung father-in-law first-class free-for-all get-together half-mast in-depth knee-jerk life-size mass-produce merry-go-round passer-by red-hot self-service start-up strong-arm third-rate time-consuming trade-off up-to-date warm-up well-being worn-out first- and second-class fares two, three and five-paise coins

[Give the players ten minutes to warm up.

[This warm-up exercise is important.

[I have a special interest in this project.

[We need to consult the special-interest groups also.