Minutes:-

The email received from the President Gymkhana on Jan 19, 2024 pointed out few specific issues related to PG students, and hence, the 5th (urgent) SPGC meeting was convened to discuss these issues. It was discussed in the 5th (urgent) SPGC meeting that the cases of the 23 recently terminated PG students (list attached), who appealed earlier, will be reconsidered on a case-to-case basis, based on the additional appeal that these 23 students will submit by 3 PM of Jan 22, 2024 to the respective DPGCs with a copy to spgc@iitk.ac.in. The SPGC student representatives will follow up with these 23 students in this regard.

It was collectively decided that the DPGCs will revisit these additional appeals and will email their case-specific recommendation in a specific format to pgdesk@iitk.ac.in by 5 PM of Jan 23, 2024, for reconsideration in the 6th SPGC meeting on Jan 24, 2024. In the meantime, these 23 students can continue attending classes, if they are already attending them, and can reside in their respective halls, if they are already residing, till final decision from the competent authority.

The proposal on implementation on Doctoral Monitoring Committee (DMC) for each PhD student presented by the SPGC student representatives is a very welcome move. A refined version of the proposal containing all details, as discussed in the meeting, will be prepared for further implementation.

A revised version of the proposals on Masters Monitoring Committee, retrospective implementation of PGARC for all PG students, and the SRS for thesis courses/ credits will be submitted by the SPGC student representatives for further discussion in the respective departments, DPGC, and SPGC.

The change suggested in the last line of PG manual Annexure I by the student representatives is highly appreciated and will be taken up in Senate for final incorporation.

Change in PG manual Annexure-I

|---|---|
| Last line: The student members shall not participate when the cases of academic evaluation of individual students are being considered, although the students' opinions might be sought before taking any decision. | The DPGC student members must participate in all DPGC meetings, and their opinion shall be sought, except for admission related matters or conduct of oral and written exams. In case of conflict of interest, the DPGC member should recuse from the meeting and be replaced with another faculty/student member, as applicable. |
