

Mr. Jogendra Behera

Mr. Jogendra Behera is currently working as an Advisor in the Economics & Power market division of Central Electricity Regulatory Commission. His current responsibilities include assisting the Central Commission in taking suitable measures for the development of power market in the country. He has previously worked with reputed organizations viz. PwC and Deloitte as a management consultant and has advised both public & private sector clients from the power sector on wide ranging issues related to policy, regulations, business strategy, Multi year Tariff, and efficiency etc. He has done his electrical engineering from IIT Delhi and management from IIM Ahmedabad.