Why Faculty Connect?

INSTITUTIONAL

High dependence on government funding—over 75% of Institute needs are met through central support.

Highly subsidised education model results in limited revenue from student fees.

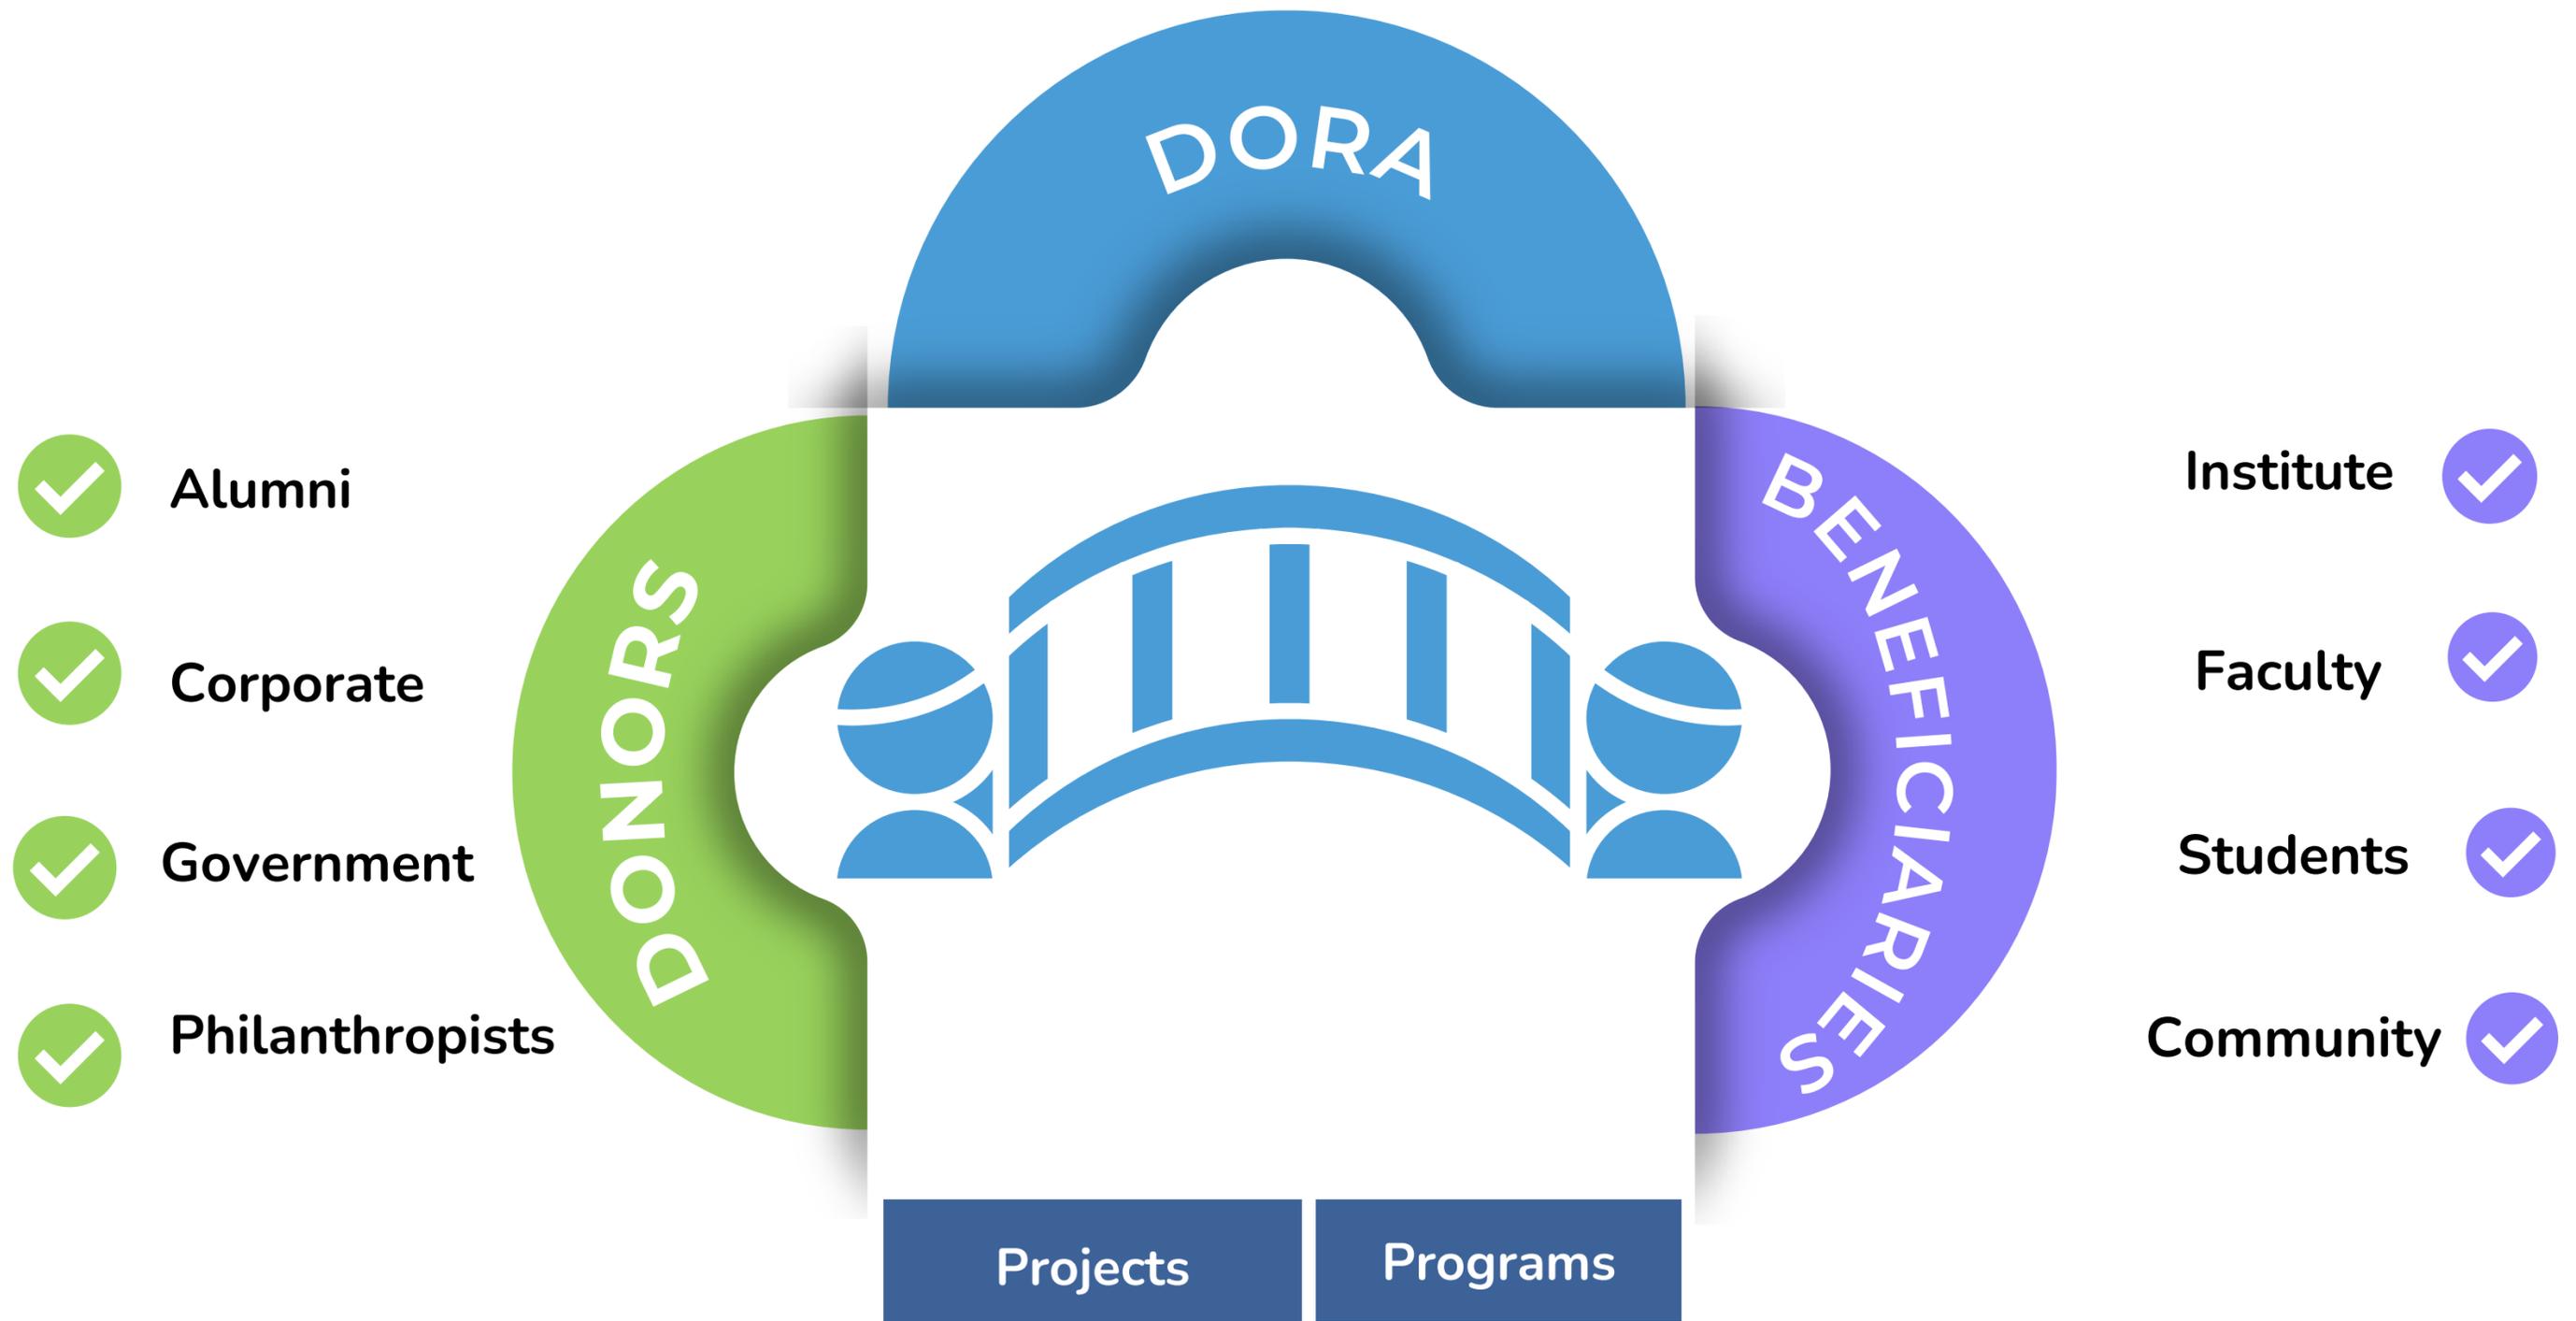

Principal repayment of HEFA loans is borne by the Institute, while only interest is supported by the Government.

No direct government CAPEX funding since 2010, with support now limited largely to salaries.

All capital expenditure funded through HEFA loans, creating long-term financial commitments.
