

Assignment 09

Please watch Lesson 9 and Tutorial 9 before attempting this assignment.

Part A

1. Differentiate between the words in the following groups by using them in sentences.
 - a. abode, dwelling
 - b. home, house, residence
 - c. apartment, flat
 - d. castle, mansion
 - e. cottage, hut
 - f. hut, shack, shanty

Note that, though the sentences may not clearly differentiate between the words, the sentence-specific use of words helps in the better understanding of the reader/listener.

2. What is the meaning of the word 'obsolete'? Are obsolete words still in use?
3. Try to find other words, similar in meaning to the set of words (abode, dwelling...). List any five of them along with their meanings.
4. Why do we find 18 forms of 14 types of sentences? Why this discrepancy?

Part B

I. Make sentences in 14 types, as illustrated in Lesson 9, each containing one of the following words.

1. behalf	2. deluge	3. demand	4. genus	5. hero	6. menace	7. prefer
8. rebate	9. relent	10. revoke	11. rewind	12. shepherd	13. thesis	14. veto

II. Correct the mistakes, if any, and rewrite the sentences given below.

1. They regarded him as best doctor in town.
2. The ministers are not interested in if the basic needs of the populace are met, they just want to have a good time.
3. She has sang this song several times.
4. The moderator had had enough of the bickering by the end of the discussion.
5. In none of the books did the author spared his heros from a tragic end.
6. Of the two facts, people are less aware of the former fact than the latter fact.
7. It is an exaggeration to say that there isn't a honest man in the business.
8. I refuse to remaining a prisoner of the lies that we like to tell ourselves.

9. The critic scathingly commented that an eleven year old can write more coherently than the author.
10. It is important to realize that the totalitarian state's control over thoughts are not to be taken lightly.
11. Swami and Friends portray the innocence of childhood through the witty lens of R. K. Narayan.
12. Politicians must address their voters concerns.
13. The writer does communicate something quite revealing, though.