

Assignment 12

Please watch Lesson 12 and Tutorial 12 before attempting this assignment.

Part A

1. Pick a verb from the word family ‘rain’. Write the corresponding 3rd and 5th forms of the verb. Subsequently, use the 3rd and 5th forms of the verb, as adjectives, in a pair of sentences.
2. Choose an adjective from the word family ‘serial’, and a noun from the word family ‘rain’. Use them together in the subject in a sentence.
3. Construct a sentence with one of the adjective-noun pairs from the list ‘3rd form of verbs’, which has not been used in any sentence in the lesson.

Repeat the above exercise for an unused adjective-noun pair from the list ‘5th form of verbs’.

4. Explain the relationship between milk and kept, and kept and for the baby, as used in the following sentence.
“He drank up the milk kept for the baby.”
5. What is the use of the phrase ‘beaten in the war’ as used in the following sentence:
“Beaten in the war, the King shouted angrily.”

Explain the different usage of 'beaten' as used in the following sentences:

- i. The beaten King shouted angrily.
- ii. Beaten by the invading army, the King shouted angrily.

6. Can the 5th form of a verb be used as an adverb?

How the 3rd and the 5th forms of a verb are used as different parts of speech as discussed in this lecture? Illustrate with examples.
