

Assignment 15

Please watch Lesson 15 and Tutorial 15 before attempting this assignment.

Part A

1. Use three words of the 'law' family as verbs, each in a sentence in passive voice.
2. Noting that the 3rd form of a verb is basically an adjective form, which rule of English syntax do we find preserved in the 'be + 3rd form' format? Explain with the help of an example.
3. Which verbs in the following sentences play the basic role of verbs and which are carrying the meaning in their adjective forms?
 - a) The scientists were taken captive.
 - b) He was dealt with seriously for the mistake.
 - c) The food was served hot.
4. Cite five verbs from the list of common verbs shown in the lecture video which cannot be written in the 'be + 3rd form' format in passive voice. Explain why it is so.
Use three other such verbs from your side, each in a sentence.
5. Write the three sentences of question 1 in all the other tenses.
6. Write three interrogative sentences in the passive voice using the words of 'day' family.
7. Write the answers to the questions in the previous exercise in passive voice using words from the word family 'law' or 'day'.
8. What is the difference between 'finish' and 'complete'?
