

Supporting action of Special Verbs

What do_{SP} we do_{ORD} for the treatment of this patient?

Did_{SP} he contact his family for help?

He does_{SP} not have_{ORD} anybody close to him.

Do_{SP} try to collect some money for his treatment.

Is anybody collecting funds? Many people were_{ORD} ready to pay.

Be_{ORD} sure that helpers are_{ORD} there to look after him.

I am_{SP} not satisfied yet. Why was_{ORD} the doctor indecisive?

Perhaps the operation will_{SP} be_{ORD} difficult.

In case of dilemma, I would_{SP} consult a senior specialist.

Shall_{SP} we call Dr. Sen for consultation?

One should_{SP} be_{ORD} careful about such difficult cases.

We will_{SP} act as He has_{SP} willed_{ORD}. (contd)

Supporting action (contd)

They have^{SP} brought some new things which we did not^{SP} have^{ORD}.

Have^{SP} you not paid him? Now he has to^{SP} deliver the goods.

The Indus valley people used to^{SP} use^{ORD} bronze to make weapons.

He can^{SP} open his shop here. You cannot^{SP} stop him.

I could not^{SP} complete your work. Could^{SP} you wait for a while?

May^{SP} I go now? No, I might^{SP} need^{ORD} you here.

We need to^{ORD/SP} check the result. The process need not^{SP} be^{ORD} specified.

They let^{SP} him go unchecked. Let^{SP} us accept this fact.

Before being^{SP} elected to lead, he must^{SP} prove his ability.

I am^{SP} planning to try this test. I must^{SP} take the challenge.

He dares^{ORD/SP} us to fight. He dare not^{SP} oppose his leader.