

Funding Opportunities for International Researchers

Contact

Technische Universität München
TUM International Center
Arcisstraße 21
80333 München
internationalcenter@tum.de www.international.tum.de Updated 02/2015

Institute for Advanced Study – Mission & Fellowship Programs

- Accomplish and amplify top-level research at TUM – risking creativity
 - Stimulate local and international collaborations
 - Develop TUM-IAS as a center for scientific interactions and discussions
- ① www.tum-ias.de/how-to-apply.html

TUM-IAS Fellowships for International Visiting Scientists

Anna Boyksen Fellowship for ambitious international collaborations on gender- and diversity-related topics

Rudolf Mößbauer Tenure Track Fellowship for outstanding, high-potential early-career scientists

Rudolf Diesel Industry Fellowship for highly qualified researchers from Industry

Hans Fischer Senior Fellowship for renowned international scientists from outside TUM

Hans Fischer Fellowship for outstanding early-career scientists from outside TUM

TUM Research Opportunities Week

- Open to advanced PhD students and young post-docs (< 3 years after PhD)
 - One-week stay financed by the Postdoc Mobility Travel Grant (50 postdocs; accommodation, travel expenses and meals)
 - One-year TUM University Foundation Fellowship for top candidates
- ① <http://go.tum.de/250655>

Visiting Professor Programs

- Teaching- / Research-oriented stays at TUM
 - Between one week and 2 semesters
 - Application to be submitted by hosting TUM professor
 - Travel costs, accommodation and remuneration for teaching assignments / salary
- ① <http://go.tum.de/463405>

TUM Career System

- Attractive career perspectives for promising international young scientists
 - Highly qualified candidates are appointed as assistant professors
 - Performance-based advancement to a permanent professorship and chair position (associate/full professor)
- ① <http://go.tum.de/079945>

