Accommodation	PUC-Rio does not provide dorms facilities on campus but offers an enriched opportunity for students to experience the Brazilian way of life by placing students in an accommodation program. For more complete information, check the accommodation website at http://www.puc-rio.br/ensinopesq/ccci/incoming/housing.html
Language Requirements	Although students are not required a specific level of proficiency in Portuguese language, all exchange students must take a placement test in order to confirm his/her knowledge of Portuguese, on the first day of classes. Students are required to take a Portuguese as a Second Language class during the regular academic term corresponding to their level. Students also have the opportunity to take an Intensive Portuguese as a Second Language course before the regular semester begins, although this course is not mandatory.
Pre-Term Portuguese As a Second Language Intensive Course	Pre-Term Portuguese as a Second Language Intensive Course, held before the regular semester, will not be included in the student's transcript even if he/she enrolls in the regular semester. Instead, students who take the Pre-Term Portuguese as a Second Language Intensive Course will receive a certificate of completion indicating the course date, student's grade, and level of Portuguese taken, number of hours. The Portuguese language courses are offered at five different levels, from very basic to the advanced levels. Each student will take a placement test to confirm his/her exact knowledge of Portuguese. This course aims to develop the student's written and oral skills in Portuguese, preparing international students to attend regular courses at the university during the subsequent academic terms. Please check the link: http://www.puc-rio.br/ensinopesq/ccci/incoming/portuguese.html
Courses Available in English	The courses taught in English have an undergraduate content based on Brazilian and Latin American aspects, such as: Culture, Literature, Business, Design, Civilization and History, among others. Disciplines in English are not necessarily offered every semester. These courses are subject to academic planning. Along with the courses in English, international students must attend Portuguese as a Second Language class

	during their academic semester, as well as any other courses in Portuguese recommended by the coordinator. No English level is required to attend the courses taught in English. Although an intermediate level (B1) or upper proficiency is recommendable. http://www.puc-rio.br/ensinopesq/ccci/incoming/study_english_puc.html
Information about Courses	Available classes and relevant course information are listed on the "Horário das Disciplinas" site located at http://www.puc-rio.br/microhorario/. You can also request the class syllabus by sending a message directly to the Department. Please see the department mail on the website http://www.puc-rio.br/sobrepucc/depto/
Required Student's Workload Per Semester (Credits)	Exchange students must take a minimum of 2 classes (8 credits) and a maximum of 5 classes (24 credits) including the mandatory Portuguese as a second language course for who is not proficient in Portuguese.
Grading System	Grades range from minimum 0 (zero) to maximum 10 (ten). 5 (five) is the minimum passing grade for undergraduate students and 6 (six) for graduate students.
Credits System	1 credit = 1 class hour/week of lecture class or 2 hours laboratory class/week or 3 hours of exercise class/week, considered standard term of 15 weeks.
Support for Disabilities	At PUC-Rio, we work closely with the Center for Disabled People – NAIPD. http://www.puc-rio.br/sobrepucc/admin/vrac/rae/ The NAIPD works directly with the CVI (Central of Independent Life). Coordinated by Disabled People at PUC-Rio and its purpose is to provide services for disabilities using individual approach, informing and guiding them, their families and all the interested ones. We work on a case-by-case basis to accommodate students' necessities the best we can. In case of students with learning disabilities, we have to contact their professor to inform Their necessity. We can also help the students that need some extra time to take test, or exams or different kind of computer program etc. We cannot provide a Note Taker, but we can help the student to find a volunteer colleague to help him/her in this matter.
Internship	Exchange students are able to do internship in Rio de Janeiro. However, they need to be studying at PUC-Rio and we strongly recommend them to inform CCCI as well as CCESP (Internship Coordination Office) concerning this matter. Please contact the Incoming Coordination: Linda Sousa- incoming@puc-rio.br
Volunteer Work	Exchange students who are interested in participating in special community projects and/or community service: please check the link below. http://www.puc-rio.br/sobrepucc/admin/vrc/respucc/index.html
Visiting Professors, Staff Mobility, Erasmus+	Central Coordination for International Cooperation (CCCI) offers a special program to support visiting professors and staff mobility at our university. Please, contact the Incoming Coordination: incoming2@puc-rio.br
